MORE TO DISCOVER

Botanic gardens and bush tucker... in Capalaba!

Have you discovered the Redlands IndigiScapes Centre at Capalaba yet?

A haven for lovers of indigenous plants and wildlife and a popular spot with tourists, you can wander through tranquil display gardens, explore the maze, learn how to feature local native plants in your backyard, and maybe even spot a koala. Or simply enjoy the scrumptious bush tucker inspired food in the Tea Garden Café, surrounded by natural bushland.

IndigiScapes always has something to discover and delight.
